K-12 SOLUTIONS GUIDE
FOR 1:1 DIGITAL LEARNING INITIATIVES

TRUSTED PARTNER FOR 3,000+ SCHOOL DISTRICTS

AGPARTS EDUCATION

AGParts Education is an industry leader in providing parts for mobile devices across all brands and product categories. We have achieved this stature by expanding our partnerships with leading computer and electronics manufacturers, while continuing to enhance our proprietary systems and software. Our team of professionals and our state-of-the-art technical facilities allow us to develop customized solutions to meet our customers' constantly changing needs.

SOLUTIONS FOR EDUCATION

If your school has a Chromebook 1:1 initiative or are considering implementing one, AGParts Education will be your valuable partner. AGParts Education will take over the challenges and logistics to help districts manage your Chromebooks deployments, no matter how big or small. We provide technical training, maintain dedicated stock, and develop custom solutions for individual school needs. School management can then focus on the advantages of the 1:1 initiative, while minimizing the cost and risk of Chromebook availability and performance for their students.

DON'T GAMBLE WITH THE SAFETY OF YOUR STUDENTS.

AGParts Offers UL Original AC Adapters!

Electronic devices are expensive. We get it. Who doesn't want to cut costs where they can? Generic accessories like AC adapters seem like a good place to start, right? Wrong!

Did you know that non-UL-certified AC power adapters can often contain sub-standard parts that fail to meet basic safety requirements? These faulty parts can overheat, damaging your device and worse, causing fire and burn hazards. The savings just don't outweigh the risks.

AGParts Education, only sells UL original AC adapters, and we stand behind the integrity and performance of the products we represent.

With AGParts Education as your equipment partner, you get peace of mind knowing that student safety is our number one priority.
